Dear Parents and Carers,

Over the years, we have really enjoyed sharing our children's wonderful learning and achievements with you on X (Twitter). However, after careful consideration, we have decided to move our social media presence to Meta.

Going forward, we will be sharing updates, celebrations and snapshots of school life on our school Facebook and Instagram pages, and we will no longer be using our X account.

We would love for you to follow our new pages so we can continue celebrating the children's learning together:

- Instagram: search acklamwhin
- Facebook: search Acklam Whin

As always, our social media spaces will continue to be a positive place for families and school to share and celebrate children's learning. Thank you for your continued support — we look forward to sharing many more special moments with you on our new channels.

Many thanks,

Mrs Prince
Head Teacher
